STUDENT POSTER COMPETITION

CALL FOR POSTERS

Medical, veterinary and other health science students who plan to attend Zoobiquity 2014 in Seattle are invited to submit a poster for consideration for presentation at the conference. A prize (to be determined) for the best submission will be conferred at the end of the meeting. Interested students should prepare and submit abstracts of their posters as follows:

Poster Criteria: The theme of the poster must

- focus on environment and health
- include human AND animal impacts
- preferably be global or international in scope
- fall within the Zoobiquity concept (<http://zoobiquity.com/>)

The subject may involve a student's individual research or comprise a topical review of an appropriate theme.

Formatting: Printed posters should be no larger than 3' x 4' (36" x 48") in size. Posters should include:

- Title
- Student author name(s) and affiliation
- Abstract/summary no more than 250 words
- Appropriate illustrations, narrative, and short list of references

Poster abstracts should be submitted for review by the deadline below. Authors will be notified within 2 weeks if their poster has been accepted.

Deadline for Submission: September 26, 2014

Where to Submit: Email completed pdf document to gretchen.kaufman@wsu.edu.
