

YOU ARE INVITED TO A VIRTUAL
INFO SESSION

W OFFICE OF GLOBAL AFFAIRS
UNIVERSITY of WASHINGTON

Call for faculty and staff:
Join a new UW community focused on engaging in global environmental change

Are you interested in learning more about how to connect with international organizations and processes focused on global environmental change? Curious about Future Earth, the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC), the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change (IPCC), and others?

SEPTEMBER 15, 2022 / 10:00-10:30 a.m.

ZOOM (<https://washington.zoom.us/j/93822883510> [washington.zoom.us]) UW authentication required

Seeking faculty and staff interested in learning more about how to engage in global environmental change through international treaty processes, committees, and organizations.

Come learn more about international processes, why they matter, how to engage with them, and how your research can support sustainable and resilient development. The goal of this new cross-disciplinary community is to empower UW faculty and staff to actively engage in global environmental change and to deepen ties and strengthen collaborations across the UW.

Questions?

Contact Dr. Kristie L. Ebi, Center for Health and the Global Environment (krisebi@uw.edu)