Asthma, The Microbiome, and Social Equity

Resources for Further Reading

More on Acknowledgments:
https://native-land.ca/resources/territory-acknowledgement/
https://clements.umich.edu/exhibit/pohrt/acknowledgement/
https://guides.lib.uchicago.edu/landlaboracknowledgment

AHA Racism and Health Equity Language Guide:

Articles:

Conceptualizing, Contextualizing, and Operationalizing Race in Quantitative Health Sciences Research

Twenty Important Research Questions in Microbial Exposure and Social Equity
https://journals.asm.org/doi/10.1128/msystems.01240-21

Science, Technology, and Human Values Journal Special Issue: Sensing Race as a Ghost Variable in Science, Technology, and Medicine
https://journals.sagepub.com/toc/sth/45/5

Race in the Microbiome: https://journals.sagepub.com/doi/full/10.1177/0162243920911998

Does the human microbiome tell us something about race? (Discusses Race and the Microbiome in Latin America): https://www.nature.com/articles/s41599-021-00772-3#Sec4

Improving Childhood Asthma Outcomes in East Harlem: The East Harlem Asthma Center of Excellence’s Asthma Counselor Program. https://pubmed.ncbi.nlm.nih.gov/35293833

Other Web Resources:
A/P/A Institute at NYU: Eugenics Record Office: https://apa.nyu.edu/hauntedfiles/https://www.aaihs.org/black-protest-white-backlash-and-the-history-of-scientific-racism/https://library.harvard.edu/confronting-anti-black-racism/scientific-racism

Black Microbiologists Association: https://blackinmicrobiology.org/

Compiled by Ariangela J. Kozik, February 2022